

On Sunday we celebrated Walter Colburn's 80th birthday. Part of that celebration was a series of messages from folks in the community. It turns out that Walter knows a lot of people! I wasn't able to read every bit of every written message we received because that would have taken a while. And so, below are those messages: from friends near and far, whop have all been touched by Walter.

This celebration was a reminder to me of the power of service. When you show up and help make life possible for the church, then the effect you have on the lives of those around you can be immense. I hope we will all remember this lesson in our own lives.

Blessings,

Rev. Andrew Guthrie

We have known Walter since 1960, and all that time he has consistently and faithful been a dedicated volunteer and servant with and for First Christian Church – Lafayette. Though many things he does, the public does see or know about, he is dedicated to doing those that others don't do yet are important and are needed for the effective operation of the church and its family.

Walter has never asked for anything in return, and week after week, year after year, he has been on site doing his best for our church. Thank you, Walter, for the man your have become and for the terrific services you have rendered to First Christian down thru the years.

We appreciate and admire you and our service.....Norm and Cay Long

The Seekers are currently reading a book titled "Living Buddha, Living Christ" by Thich Hat Hanh

"Nominated by Martin Luther King, Jr. for a Nobel Peace Prize, Thich Nhat Hanh is one of today's leading sources of wisdom, peace, compassion and comfort.

The 20th anniversary edition of the classic text, updated, revised, and featuring a Mindful Living Journal.

"Buddha and Christ, perhaps the two most pivotal figures in the history of humankind, each left behind a legacy of teachings and practices that have shaped the lives of billions of people

For those joining by Zoom (note: this link is new as of January 2024) https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8647021762 over two millennia. If they were to meet on the road today, what would each think of the other's spiritual views and practices?

"Thich Nhat Hanh has been part of a decades-long dialogue between two great contemplatice traditions, and brings to Christianity an appreciation of its beauty that could be conveyed only by an outsider. IN lucid, meditative prose, he explores the crossroads of compassion and holiness at which the two traditions meet, and he reawakens our understanding of both. 'On the altar in my hermitage,' he says, 'are images of Buddha and Jesus, and I touch both of them as my spiritual ancestors.'"
